

October 23, 2015

Notice: Fraudulent business and employment offers

JGC has been notified of fraudulent business and employment offers being transmitted via email and through social media forums by people claiming to be employees or representatives of JGC.

These fraudulent business offers have resulted in illegally contracted work with third parties claiming to be JGC. We have also learned of fraudulent recruitment and employment offers requesting prospective candidates provide detailed personal information.

Please be advised that these communications are FRAUDULENT and not sent from anyone affiliated with JGC or our subsidiary companies.

If you receive such a message, please contact your local law enforcement agency and provide any details you may have. You also may forward the messages to webmaster@jgc.com.

For employment opportunities with JGC, please visit JGC Careers.